

Short Film Competition – 9th Neisse Film Festival

Dear Filmmakers,

It's a new year – from 2-6 May 2012, Kunstbauer-Kino e.V. in eastern Saxony, and its cultural partners in Germany, Poland and the Czech Republic, are presenting the seventh Neisse Film Festival in the three-country-corner.

Once again this year we are holding a Short film competition, welcoming especially films from film institutes and similar institutions.

The main prize of the DREILAND Short Film Festival is €500 and will be granted by a jury of experts called by Kunst-Bauer-Kino e.V.

We invite all film students and filmmakers to submit their films by 1. March 2012. Please see the regulations attached and use the submission form included with this mail.

We look forward to receiving your films!

Reglement DREILAND - Kurzfilm-Wettbewerb

1. The 9th Neisse Filmfestival takes place from May 2th to 6th 2012.
2. One part of the Neisse Filmfestival is a shortfilm competition.
3. Films that fulfill the following conditions will be granted for the competition:
 - o year of production not more than 2 years ago
 - o with English subtitles, dialogue lists are needed
 - o films not longer than 20 minutes
 - o handed in by March 1th 2012

www.kunstbauerkino.de www.neissefilmfestival.de info@kunstbauerkino.de